Used Household Goods and Personal Effects

Documents Required

- Original passport (with one-year visa issued by immigration in Thailand required for free duty and tax import)
- Packing list
- Work permit
- Original bill of lading (OBL) / air waybill (AWB)
- Copy ID card (returning citizens) (air shipment only)
- 90 day business class visa (non Thai immigrants)
- Diplomatic privileges approval issued by Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Thailand

Specific Information

- The shipment must arrive within 6 months after the owner of the goods' first arrival on their non-immigrant visa or arrival stamp on a passport.
  - For returning citizens it must be on last arrival.
- Must contain only used household and personal effect items (not new items).
- Customs allow one of each kind of electrical appliances.
  - Double items will be dutiable.
- Household goods must come from the country where the owner of the goods has been staying / working before moving to Thailand.

- Customs allow one air and sea shipment duty free.
- The owner of the goods should enter Thailand with a 90 days "class B" (business) non-immigrant visa (non - citizens).
- The owner of the goods has a 12 month work permit (without any condition), and 12 month visa which has been stamped by immigration in Thailand.
  - Normal process for issuing work permit may take 4-8 weeks (non - citizens).
- The owner of the goods has never imported goods into Thailand (returning citizens).
- The owner of the goods must be in the origin country at least 365 days (returning citizens).
- If the owner of the goods visits Thailand while staying overseas, it must be only 3 months maximum each time (returning citizens).
- If the owner of the goods visits Thailand many times while staying overseas, the owner of the goods must have good reason and explanation for Thai customs (returning citizens).
- Returning citizens must be overseas for 1 year in order to be considered for tax and duty free re-entry; travel to and from Thailand during the owner of the goods' overseas stay is likely to disqualify them from the exemption.
  - A physical stamp in passport and a copy of his/her Thai ID card is required.
- Diplomatic shipments are exempt from tax and duty, but processing takes approximately 14 business days by the respective Embassy; therefore, documentation must arrive prior to shipment to avoid additional port charges.
- Retirement / tourist / non - immigrant O visa holders must pay duties.
  - Retirement visa holders must pay duties for household goods except used personal effects (e.g. books, clothes, shoes).
